Point
01

The most widely used FREE study abroad guidebook in Japan

20,000 copies of the guidebook are distributed free of charge to over 2,500 places.

FREE GUIDEBOOKS mean ALL visitors at education events can have a copy!

※ Also distributed to 100 boards of education and study abroad related service providers.

※ The distribution list gets updated regularly according to the result of questionnaire surveys for high schools and colleges in Japan.

※ Most universities with an international outlook are members of JAFSA (Japan Network for International Education).

Point

02

Widely recognised as reliable source of information

KBUNSHA has been publishing free study abroad guidebooks in collaboration with foreign embassies and official organizations since late 1990s. Because of the long experience of producing study abroad guidebooks, KBUNSHA has gained trust from teachers/staff of Japanese institutions. Schools and institutions use KBUNSHA Guidebooks as reliable “textbooks” at their study abroad events.

Point

Promotion through KBUNSHA websites

KBUNSHA has been running a study abroad website for over 15 years and it is widely known by schools and institutions in Japan. A new website dedicated for the study in New Zealand Guidebook was also launched in July 2017: <http://kbunsha.com/newzealand/> The new website is linked to the KBUNSHA main site and helps further increase the exposure of information about advertising institutions.

Features of KBUNSHA guidebooks

- ▶ It is an increasing trend to get information for free and free publications are more widely read.
- ▶ A large circulation (20,000 copies plus on-line version) makes it possible to send multiple copies to over 2,500 organizations. Those organizations that receive our guidebooks can therefore distribute free copies to students at their own events.
- ▶ KBUNSHA Guidebooks are distributed to over 150 international offices of municipal governments, and they give away our guidebooks to visitors at their offices and events.
- ▶ Comprehensive information on education systems, how to apply and for living in the country.
- ▶ People tend to keep KBUNSHA Guidebooks for a long time from the time when they first start thinking about study abroad plans until after they start studying in the country.
