Prime Minister's Scholarships for Latin America (PMSLA) Group Awardees 2017-18 Round 2

Institution/ Organisation	Program Name	PMSLA Programme
Lincoln University	Agribusiness Summer School - Brazil	16 candidates to undertake a 5-week Agribusiness summer school in Brazil. The programme will use a mixture of lectures, field trips and social activities to meet its objectives. Lectures will cover culture, economy and institutional systems, as well as specific agri-food systems found in Brazil, and presentations from industry groups, including New Zealand businesses operating in Brazil and Brazilian businesses in agribusiness for the domestic market or exporting to markets. Field trips will cover different parts of the supply chain, exposing students to small and large agricultural producers, food processors and retail.
University of Auckland	International Business and Language Summer School - Mexico	11 candidates to undertake a 4-week business, language and culture summer programme in Mexico Recipients will attend Monterrey Tech's summer school Programme, enrolling in two course: Doing Business in Latin America and Spanish as a second language. They will also have the opportunity to gain in-depth insight into the Mexican business environment and the potential for New Zealand companies in Mexico.
University of Auckland	Doctoral and undergraduate internship Programme – Colombia	11 candidates to undertake a 12-week internship programme through the InternGroup in Colombia. This programme proposes to bring together University of Auckland Doctoral candidates and undergraduates from across multiple disciplines to Colombia for a 12-week internship programme in partnership with the InternGroup. The programme includes full-time internships for each student confirmed via a personalised placement process. Each placement is augmented through group activities such as reflection exercises, networking events, and orientation workshops. Alongside developing the independence and cultural awareness of living and working in Colombia, the program places equal emphasis on the enhancement of the skills and experience required to fulfil career ambitions.
Otago Polytechnic	La Plata customised sport programme - Argentina	3 candidates to undertake a 6-week customised rugby strength and conditioning programme to La Plata Rugby Club, Argentina This programme is a collaborative physical conditioning group project that aims to connect emerging strength and conditioning coaches with the introduction of Rugby Union in a South American Tertiary Institution and an amateur (semi-professional) Rugby Club – La Plata whilst working on a cross cultural collaborative sports training programme. At the core of this programme is understanding the constraints of sport in this setting and the challenging of NZ beliefs around physical activity and sport.
